AN OVERVIEW OF CAMP TICONDEROGA

Camp Ticonderoga is an upscale, yet rustic, bar & grill that has been serving our famous Jack Daniels BBQ Ribs, Certified Black Angus steaks, fresh fish and chocolate chip cookies, since 1996. Located in Troy on Rochester Road overlooking the scenic public golf course, Sylvan Glenn, Camp Ti boasts a comfortable, inviting Adirondack atmosphere, complete with knotty pine walls, mission style furniture and unique antler fixtures.

Camp is a popular spot if you're looking for terrific service, premium margaritas and martinis, ice cold draft beer and an interesting wine list. Stay inside and enjoy the beautiful view and rustic fireplaces, or go outside and relax on our handsome outdoor terrace overlooking the golf course. Busy, fun, Camp Ticonderoga is right for any occasion.

THE GHOST!

Heard of Casper? Meet Hannah, the Ghost of Camp Ticonderoga. The legend has been passed on through employees of the various restaurants that have occupied the Blount House. Supposedly, Hannah hung herself in one of the upstairs bedrooms and now haunts the former home's inhabitants. Strange noises have been heard and unexplainable things have been witnessed, such as flickering or dimming lights, rattling dishes and objects falling for no reason.

LOCATION

Appropriately, the Algonquin word Ticonderoga means land between two lakes. Camp Ticonderoga is located on the west side of Rochester Road between Square Lake Road and Long Lake Road. We're adjacent to the city of Troy's public golf course, Sylvan Glenn. We're easily reached from anywhere in metro Detroit, being in close proximity to I-75 and M-59, located on the main thoroughfare of Rochester Road.
